FINE DISPLAY OF OLD-TIME NEEDLEWORK

The regular meeting of the North Middletown Mothers' Club, held at the home of Mrs. Mangus E. Rash, was an unusually interesting one. A delicious luncheon was served to about one hundred guests, after which the program was given. Mrs. Anna Ernberg, director of Fireside Industries of the Berea College, gave a talk on "Colonial Art."

Many beautiful pieces of needlework of the olden times in Kentucky, as well as many of more modern design, were displayed by Mrs. Ernberg. There were several counterpanes, quilts and coverlets over one hundred years old. Mrs. Ernberg brought from the College a display of work done by Berea students. The specimens were exact duplicates of materials and patterns used by Kentucky's pioneers.

North Middletown has the distinction of being unique in the annals of history I am sure. Do you know of another township that has "one faith, one church and one baptism?" Everybody of the same mind, everybody of like faith, and the whole community akin? The Mother's Club is one of its institutions, and the Paris women who were lucky enough to be invited by its president, Mrs. Magnus Rash, to be present at the meeting held on Thursday, April 28th, were fortunate beyond measure.

Mrs. Rash laid aside all parliamentary form, and gave her friends the pleasure of meeting the speaker and honor guest, Mrs. Ernberg, from Berea College, in a most informal and delightful way.

Her spacious home was thrown open to the sun and breezes, and as car after car left its quota of passengers, it was not long until the whole house was filled with the sound of happy voices.

At one o'clock the doors of the dining room were thrown open and the guests were invited to such a luncheon as could be found only in Bourbon county. Old ham, chicken salad, potato chips, timbals filled with peas and champignons, cheese balls, hot rolls, beaten biscuit, coffee and tea, nuts, candies, olives, pickles, everything that heart could wish.

When this wonderful luncheon was over Mrs. Rash asked her guests to gather in the big hall that runs through the house, and in a few well chosen words introduced the speaker of the day, Mrs. Ernberg then told of her coming to Berea and of her great love for and deep interest in the school, where she has lived for nine years. After talking for an hour and answering many questions, the guests were invited to go to the upper floor to see the exquisite display on exhibition of the work done at Berea. Counterpanes, scarfs, rugs, quilts, baskets, brooms, pillow covers, baby quilts and rugs, and all for sale at reasonable prices.

Few indeed came down with empty hands. It will be an occasion long to be remembered by those fortunate enough to have been the recipients of Mrs. Rash's hospitality. Mrs. Rash makes an ideal hostess—cordial, hospitable, and genuinely pleased to have you in her home. The rush and hurry of modern life leaves but little time for the cultivation of these old-fashioned graces. The ladies from Paris who were present were: Mrs. Warren Rogers, Mrs. Lunceford Talbott, Mrs. Richard Willis, Miss Lillie Williams, Miss Clara Bacon, Mrs. Mollie Rice, Mrs. Fanniebell Sutherland, Mrs. Thompson Tarr, Miss Lizzie Grimes, Mrs. Wade Whitely, Mrs. Virgil Galtskill, Mrs. Owen Davis, Mrs. Watson Judy and Miss Frances Boone. About one hundred ladies enjoyed this delightful function.

NOTES FROM "FANDOM"

The Winchester Hustlers took the Paris Ruggles team into camp by a score of 13 to 6, in the game at the West Second street park, Saturday afternoon. The features of the game were a three-base hit by Burnett, of Paris, and a home run by Berg, of the Hustlers. The local staged a rally in the seventh inning when ten runs behind by scoring two runs, but were blanked in the remaining innings. Lancaster, who was in the box for Paris, was hit hard, and was relieved by McCorrd, who held the Hustlers. The Vallandingham, "father and son, did fine work for the Hustlers. The same teams played at Garner Park, in Winchester, Sunday afternoon, the game being one of the old-time ones, with the score in the final inning 2 to 1 in favor of Winchester. Both sides drew blanks on the score board, until the fifth inning, when Brewsbaugh scored on a long hit by McFarland. Winchester played a scoreless game until the seventh, when two runs were chalked up. The features of the game were Nickles' pitching for Paris and Ballard's hitting for Winchester. Paris played a fine defensive game, and was remarked by the liberal applause of fans.

The game at Centerville, Sunday afternoon between Centerville and Newtown resulted in a victory for Centerville by the score of 4 to 2. The attendance was large, despite the cool weather and counter attractions. The batteries were: For Centerville, Carter and Carter; for Newtown, Dixon and Gray. The feature of the game was the pitching of Carter. Next Sunday the Centerville and Sadielville teams will play on the Centerville grounds.

IMPORTANT POSTAL RULING

Postmaster J. Walter Payne asks THE NEWS to give publicity to a recent ruling of the Postoffice Department, which will be of much interest to the public. The order, conveyed in an official bulletin to all postoffices, is in relation to the general delivery service, and is, in substance, about as follows:

"It seems that postmasters are not making a proper effort to restrict the general delivery privilege at city delivery offices to transients, and to patrons who, for good and sufficient reasons acceptable to the postmaster cannot receive their mail by carrier or through a postoffice box. Therefore, in all cases where the attendant facts are unknown, the postmaster will require persons calling at the general delivery window to establish their identity, supply their local addresses, and state their reasons for not taking advantage of the carrier-delivery service. . . . When there is any question as to the propriety of extending the general delivery privilege the clerk in charge must confer with his superior officer, and if then advisable, request the patrons to take up the matter with the postmaster or the Superintendent of Mails."

Mr. Simms is constructing an up-to-date racing establishment at Saratoga, which he will use as a training establishment for part of his large stable. Mr. Horine had intended to ask the Winchester City Council for a leave of absence of two months in order that he might assist Mr. Simms in completing the work at Saratoga, but decided to accept the position as the remuneration would be more than retaining his position with the city.

NOTICE TO WATER CONSUMERS

The Committee of the Paris Commercial Club to whom was entrusted the matter of Water Rates has agreed upon the following plan:

We have selected the Peoples' Deposit Bank and Trust Co. to act as trustee of the fund hereby provided for.

We advise each consumer to pay at once to said trustee the amount of money demanded by the Paris Water Co. for the current quarter and the trustee will make a tender to the Water Company of the amount of the old rate for each person who enters this arrangement.

If the water company refuses to accept the money so tendered, the committee will arrange to have an injunction suit brought in the name of each person to prevent the water company from cutting off the water.

The cases will be brought through the courts and the Commercial Club will provide the necessary expense of the litigation.

If the water company accepts the tender so made, the balance will be refunded to each individual.

Each consumer will file with the trustee the notice from the water company and the last water bill. PARIS COMMERCIAL CLUB, By William E. Hacker, Secretary. (30apr-1t)
